VOL. XIV

on pending the president's tampures inability to act was discussed, though the in ariable re-

THE DAILY CONSTITUTION.

ATLANTA, GA., SUNDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 4, 1881.

ATLANTA GAS. SURJAT NORMAN (S. SPEPEBBER 4. 1884)

THE LAY DIVIDAGE PROCESS OF THE LAY

ang to the possibilities of forcing it out of the far-were established. Outside of it might was the only 'aw. No Englishman could marry the daughter of an Irishman outside "the Pale." [No Irishman could take the daughter of another, if "the Pale" seperated them. Those without the pale were disqualified for any office, for every occupation except the lowest and most mental. Apostacy to the religion of their, fathers only could purchase local habitation and a name—the right to live, work and employ the gifts of Providence in Ireland. This state of things existed until after the American revolution. No Irish-will take upon itself a new lease of life if it estab-

ALL AROUND US.

NO. 68

ANOTHER TRAGEDY

accompanied by Miss Moss, all Cutting and here.

Are Garrard and Mrs. Castlebian cancer in a few days since.

Mrs. I of Pace, of Covington is here.

Mrs. I of Miss Moss, all Cutting and here.

Mrs. I of Miss Moss, all Cutting and here.

Mrs. I of Miss Moss, all Cutting and here.

Mrs. I of Miss Moss, all Cutting and here.

Mrs. I of Miss Moss, all Cutting and here.

Mrs. I of Miss Moss, all Cutting and here.

Mrs. I of Miss Moss, all Cutting and here.

Mrs. I of Miss Moss, all Cutting and here.

Mrs. I of Miss Moss, all Cutting and here.

Mrs. I of Miss Moss, all Cutting and here.

Mrs. Howell Oob, in here with experimentation of the man they so towed to honor in the method of the man they so towed to honor in Mrs. Latimes and her charming the analysis.

Mrs. Latimes and her charming the area of the area of the miss of the